Our Resources and Capabilities

SCA Packaging offers expertise and added value at every stage of the supply chain in three specialist fields:

Branded Packaging, Display and Co-Packing.

Our commitment is to state of the art creative design, production, packaging and printing techniques, coupled with delivery by the most efficient route possible to markets throughout the UK and Europe. The locations of our four specialist operating facilities have been carefully chosen; each one represents the most effective combination of local resources, access to road and rail infrastructure and workforce skill set.

Our People

Our guiding principles are respect, responsibility, excellence and initiative

From inspired design that pushes the boundaries of packaging and retail POS marketing, to logistics that set the standard for efficiency, value and customer satisfaction. Designers who combine a passion for creating new and ever more effective solutions with a thorough understanding of the technical processes needed to bring them to life. Packaging line consultants who oversee the software, machinery and systems that make today's complex cardboard engineering concepts possible.

Account Management teams who work hand in hand with customers to identify new opportunities and steer their development from rough working drawings to coordinated, nationwide and even international roll out. United in their drive to deliver quality, value and the highest possible levels of customer service, it's SCA people that make all the difference.

Our Philosophy

At SCA Packaging, service and sustainability inform and influence every part of our operation and guide our every business decision.

Closer to you

We always take pride in working close to you, whether you are a customer, a colleague or a partner. This is how we learn to improve. This is how we see new needs and solutions. And it is also how we win satisfied customers and renewed confidence.

Passionate for everyday life

We really have a passion for everyday life and solving both large and small problems that arise in life. We're as passionate about improving the little things as we are about taking the big leaps. Our initiative to increase knowledge relating to hygiene saves lives in all parts of the world.

Forever Sustainable

We took the initiative in the area of sustainability long before it became a business trend. It is in our genes since we love nature and people and animals that thrive on it. That is also why we consider the whole picture before taking decisions. And yes we have the credentials to prove it.
